Comrade Gonzalo's inscription in memory of Augusta «Norah» la Torreⁱ, his comrade and wife, who had passed away in November 1988. This inscription enshrined Comrade Norah as one of the greatest communists in the history of Peru and an example for all communists and proletarian revolutionaries on Earth.

HONOR AND GLORY TO COMRADE NORAH!

Firm marxist-leninist-maoist, Gonzalo thought and anti-revisionist; founder of the Red Faction and great historical director – an example of giving one's life for the Party and the revolution. A daughter of the people and the international proletariat. A blazing red flag, flying defiantly against the wind.

THE GREATEST HERO OF THE PARTY AND THE REVOLUTION!

*Peru, 08.03.1991
GONZALO*

ⁱ Augusta Deyanira «Norah» la Torre Carrasco (1946-88) was a Peruvian communist leader and member of the Standing Committee of the Political Bureau of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Peru. She entered the Party in 1962 at the age of 17 and helped found the Red Faction together with Comrade Gonzalo. In February 1964, they married. In 1965, she founded the People's Women's Movement in Ayacucho, the generated organization of the Communist Party of Peru for the Party work among women. She helped found the People's Aid of Peru and wrote actively for the Party magazine The Red Flag. On May 17th, 1980, she commanded the unit which carried out the first armed actions of the people's war in Chuschi. She was elected to the Central Directorship of the Party at its 1st Congress in 1988-89. In November 1989, she committed suicide following a long period of mental illness. Comrade Gonzalo proclaimed her the greatest hero of the Party and the revolution and a grand memorial service was held for her in connection with the Party Congress.
